Dedication

With respect for his systematic and progressive ideas to further the educational opportunities of our high school, and his interest in the welfare of the students of today and of the future, we sincerely dedicate this Orbit of 1945 to our Superintendent: Harley J. Powell.

FREE public education has always been considered a privilege. A privilege which few, except those fortunate enough to be born in a democracy, have had the opportunity of enjoying. As the world today struggles in the throes of war, education becomes even a greater privilege. This book details in pictures and words some of the privileges that the high school pupils of this community enjoy.

We in Watertown are happy that the young people of this community have been able to continue their high school education with so little curtailment or restriction. We have even been able to expand our offerings in some areas. Our activity program has been enlarged and organized to provide for a wide range of interests and abilities. New emphasis has been placed on pupil guidance. True, some other areas have been restricted. A few courses have been organized on a war basis, there has been a greater turn over of teachers, and a few boys have entered the armed services before completing school. As a whole, we have reason to be thankful that our school has been able to function effectively when so much of the world is experiencing only destruction and desolation.

It is only normal to look forward. There are many plans and ideas for improving education in the post war era. Locally, we hope to have more adequate buildings, a greater expansion of practical education including vocational training, better methods and devices for teaching, and consequently better trained students to take their place in our democracy.

An old saying states, "Those who have received much owe much." The graduates of this school will demonstrate through their achievement in living whether they appreciate the privilege of education and recognize the responsibility incurred. We are confident that they will not fail themselves, or you, the citizens of this community, who make this education possible.

HARLEY J. POWELL

Administration

Orbie calls our attention to that group of volunteer educational directors, who unrewarded, devote their time and abilities to the youth of this community. Aside from their routine duties of selecting teachers and determining school policies, they are now working on an extensive post-war plan to retain the high standard of education in our school.

Watertown High we're loyal to you and
We'll sing your praise to the sky.
We'll always be true to the memory of you
Here's a toast to the blue and white.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

Organizations

During the past year more and more emphasis has been placed upon the value of cooperative work in club groups. Some twenty new clubs have been organized on school time to offer to students a better opportunity to pursue their fields of interest. Orbie enjoys skipping classes to participate in these activities.

THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS

This year's group of one-act plays were entirely produced by student management including all the directing and the responsibilities of the committees.

Each class had a different type of play. The sophomores presented a comedy, the juniors, a mystery, and the seniors, a serious play.

SENIOR HIGH DEBATE

The debate season was an interesting and successful one from the stand-point of the quality of performance as well as of the pertinent question which was:

"Resolved: That the legal voting age should be reduced to 18 years."

The debating squad, under the direction of Miss Mabel Fratzke, won second place in the Whitewater district debate tournament held at Wisconsin High School, Madison. They won four of its six debates and qualified for the state tournament.

Because of travel restrictions, the squad did not go on to the state tournament, although they were eligible, and for the same reason they attended only one practice tournament at Wisconsin High School.

Affirmative: Mildred Golper, Lois Jaeger.

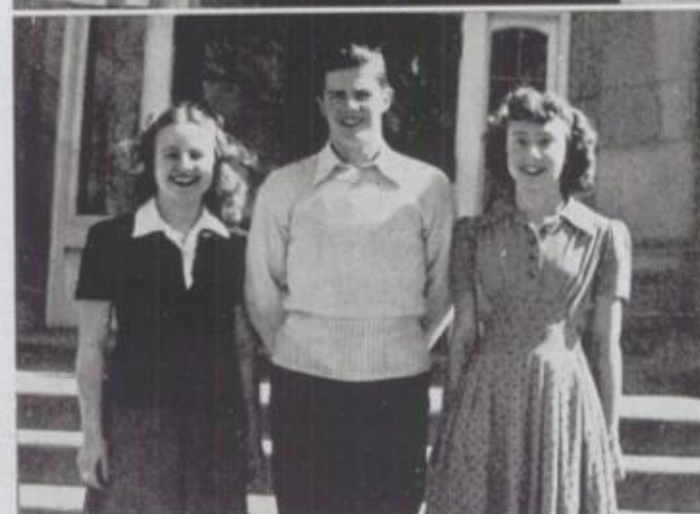

Negative: Dorothy Semrich, Joan Sabin.

RIPON 0 vs. W. H. S. 6

The football season started out with the traditional game against Ripon. The game remained scoreless until the late stages of the third period when Howie Stallman made the one and only touchdown of the game. After John Schumann had carried the ball 19 yards around his own left end, he passed it to Howie who took it over the one yard line. Point after touchdown missed. Watertown came out victorious, however, with a 6-0 margin over Ripon.

During the last half, John Schumann broke his wrist and was lost for the rest of the football season.

FORT ATKINSON 6 vs. W. H. S. 26

After a good start Watertown was ready to meet Fort with an excellent defense which broke through the Fort line to give the Goslings the edge in scoring. It was a nicely played game and more than repeated the victory over Fort of the preceding year in which the Goslings defeated the invaders 28-13.

Watertown kicked off to Fort, and Storbeck passed to Eddie Herold for the first touchdown. Fort immediately rallied and made their only touchdown of the game. After the half Fort kicked off to Watertown and Storbeck dashed 76 yards before he was brought to the ground by one of the invaders. Watertown continued its march to the goal line, and the game ended with Watertown coming out on top.

MARINETTE 0 vs. W. H. S. 8

In front of a roaring crowd, Watertown ended the three year jinx against the Marines. Midway in the opening period a soaring punt by Paul Storbeck sent Marinette back to its own 15 yard line. A bad forward pass sent Paris, a fleet Marine quarterback, back into his own end zone, and Eddie Herold trapped him for a safety and two points. Four plays later W. H. S. was back over the goal line and the scoring for the game had been completed.

There was no star in that forward wall. Every boy that got an assignment; Eddie Herold, Max Justmann, John Keck, Roman Berg, John Doering, Don Jurick, Bill King, Harvey Lehtoma, Johnny Knispel, Ed Rehbaum, and LeRoy Saniter carried that assignment out well.

CAMPION 25 vs. W. H. S. 0

Watertown suffered its first defeat of the season when it met Champion on their own field. Watertown received the opening kickoff but couldn't move and Champion promptly started a down-field march that ended in a touchdown for them. Watertown penetrated to the Champion 35 but couldn't muster enough power to keep moving. In the second quarter Champion took to the air. It moved to the Watertown 35 where again Champion broke in the clear and raced to another touchdown. The Goslings came out for the second half with a brief spark and drove to Champion's 35 before losing the ball on downs. Champion kept up a steady offensive and ended up the game 25-0.

EDGEWOOD 31 vs. W. H. S. 0

Although outmatched by a powerful Crusader 11, Watertown played a good brand of football. Watertown made its deepest penetration of Edgewood territory in the fourth quarter when Storbeck, newly named captain, cracked through to the 44 yard line. A fumble recovered by Edgewood ended the Gosling's threat. The game ended with Edgewood rolling to a victory of 31-0.

PORTAGE 13 vs. W. H. S. 0

Another saddening defeat hits the Goslings. Watertown made a good start when it recovered its own kickoff on the Portage 41 and smashed quickly down to the warriors 30. Storbeck added 12 yards, but the ball was fumbled on the next play and Portage took over on its own 19.

Storbeck and Stallman started the attack rolling again in the second quarter. Watertown was forced to kick and starting from its 15, Portage charged downfield to the W. H. S. 18. A dash through the remaining 18 for a goal was successful and Portage made the first touchdown and the point after the touchdown on a kick.

The third quarter was an even draw, but during the fourth quarter Portage's offensive moved the ball over to the 25 and snapped the ball into the open and outsped Watertown's secondary to the goal. The attempted kick was blocked and the game ended 13-0.

BEAVER DAM 39 vs. W. H. S. 13

The kick off was to Beaver Dam and the invaders marched to Watertown's 41 before a pass interception by King halted them. The invaders returned the compliment by intercepting a Gosling aerial on the Beaver's 29 and shot 71 yards down the field to the goal but failed to make the point after the touchdown. The Beavers followed up with another plunge to the goal line and the score was 13-0.

Storbeck returned the kick off in the second half and flipped a short aerial to Stallman who raced 60 yards to the goal. Storbeck's kick was wide. The Gosling's joy, however, was short lived and Beaver Dam again scored. The Goslings came through on a pass from Lewis to Storbeck who took the ball on the 7 and raced over. The invaders continued their march to the goal line and ended the game with a score of 39-13.

REGIONAL TOURNAMENT

BERLIN 35 vs. W. H. S. 33

February 28

Because the referee decided to venture into the audience to get a glimpse at the fellow who shot off a cap pistol, Watertown lost its chance for a victory. The referee took the last eight seconds of the game for his stroll and he got back in time for the timer to sound the horn for the end of the game.

W. H. S. got off to a slow start but managed to start tightening the count at the end of the half with a 22-10.

After the intermission the boys got hot and quickly made the score 26-16, and closed the quarter with a 28-23. Schumann and Stallman collaborated to put the Goslings in the lead for the first time, 31 to 28. Weiske knotted the score with a rebound and then put his team ahead with a long goal. Johnny Schumann tied the score again and then a Berlin forward sank a goal which put Berlin in the lead. While the Goslings were waiting to take the ball, time and the referee marched on and Watertown had no chance to make the one and only goal needed.

RIPON 31 vs. W. H. S. 33

March 1

The game opened with Ripon making the first points, but Johnny Schumann made up for that when he made nine straight points for the Goslings. Ripon caught up in the second quarter but the Blue kept going and ended the half 10 up.

The Goslings sagged in the third quarter but ran its advantage to 23 to 18 early in the quarter, and the quarter ended in another tie.

The final quarter was practically scoreless and it ended 31-21. In the overtime, Schumann cinched the win with a push shot, which brought his total for the game up to 19 points.

MAYVILLE 25 vs. W. H. S. 13

March 3

The game opened with Steckling giving the Goslings a two point lead. Mayville came back with a 5-2 advantage midway in the first period. Watertown lead 8-7 at the quarter on Knispel's three baskets. The Goslings trailed at the first half when the score was 14-11.

Mayville took charge of the last half and the Goslings gained but two points.

Two Watertown players were awarded positions on all-tourney teams. They were Schumann, guard and Stallman, forward.

THE SEASON

Looking over our team's season record, we find that it is not one of the best. When luck is with you and you make a few extra points and win, it looks good on paper; luck wasn't with us and it sure looks bad on paper.

Despite the lack of experience and manpower, which was against the team from the beginning, it showed good sportsmanship and tried hard even though the going was tough. John Schuman was unable to report for basketball at the beginning of the season because of a broken wrist, a souvenir of the Ripon football game, so Howie Stallman was the only experienced player to report. Until mid-season when Uncle Sam beckoned, Eddie Herold, who had seen some action last year, played with the team. John Steckling, Curtis Loeffler, and John Knispel were up in the starting lineup and were soon playing a good brand of basketball despite lack of experience. Bill King, Wayne Kressin, and John Doering proved their worth when they went in for the other members of the team.

We got off to a bad start and it took us a while before we were able to equal the topnotch competition which we were up against all season. Eddie Herold kept the team going at the beginning of the season. During the game with Whitewater Eddie made nine field goals for eighteen points, almost winning the game singelhanded, but he received too little aid from the team to make it a win for us.

Several times they fought through to the end and the opposing team needed an overtime to make the one lucky shot needed to win. A rule infraction cost the Gosling's a possible victory over Wauwatosa. With five seconds of the regular game remaining, fouls were called on Herold and Stallman and the 'Tosa forward stepped up and dumped both gift shots in to tie the count. 'Tosa counted up two goals in the overtime while Steckling made Watertown's lone goal on a rebound.

Howie Stallman proved that we didn't need an overtime to win when he staged almost a personal victory against Lake Mills. It was Howie's shooting which kept the team going during the game and his bucket in the final five seconds of play which brought us the victory. Lake had suffered only one previous defeat and had defeated us earlier in the season.

Though the team won only two out of seventeen games their fans didn't lose interest. Almost every game was a sellout, and the fans cheered for a team that not only needed their support but certainly deserved it.

Literature

Through the ages, writing of all kinds has played an important part in the development of civilization. We, too, have done our bit along this line in hopes that maybe someday, somewhere, somehow—well, you never know, you know! !

WORTH FIGHTING FOR

First Prize—Literary Contest—By Phyllis Goecke "46"

He was home at last! What a wonderful, beautiful word, home. And there were Mom and Mary, his girl, waiting for him. In a moment he was in their arms, and his mother was crying softly with happiness.

As they walked arm and arm down Main Street, the stores, houses, and people all looked the same. Nothing had changed. People looked up in surprise as he passed. After all, two years was a long time to be away.

At last they got home, his mother clinging to him possessively, and Mary looking at him with shining eyes, not trying to conceal the love that shone there. As he opened the gate, who should come bounding down the walk but his dog, Bingo. One minute he was standing, the next he was down on his knees, and the dog's rough pink tongue was excitedly licking his face. He picked the dog up and carried him into the house.

It was all just as he remembered it. Everything was clean, and all the familiar things he cherished had not been changed or moved in any way. Suddenly, he knew he was really home. Everything was complete, and the next few days held every conceivable joy for him.

Then one warm summer day, he and Mary took a long walk out in the country. It was early summer, and everywhere the air was filled with the smell of growing things. The soft, warm air felt delicious to the touch, and the war and its horror was completely forgotten. The wind seemed to beckon them on until they came upon a small stream, hidden from sight by tall, slender willow trees. The water was cold and clear, sparkling in the bright sunlight, and in places where the willows shut out the sun it was cool, damp, and dim. You could see prisms of light slanting through the trees giving everything a look of unreality. Afterwards they took off their shoes to go wading—the water looked so cool and inviting. The soft green moss tickled her bare feet, and her laughter tinkled in the still air like little silver bells.

Just as he was about to step into the water, there was a loud crash nearby, and everything was thrown into darkness. The last thing he remembered was calling, "Mary, Mary," and receiving no answer . . . . .

Someone was shaking him roughly, and the first thing he became conscious of was a brilliant flash of light, turning the world around him into broad daylight. The tired, young, dirty soldier jerked up with a start. A voice said, "Hey, get your stuff together. We're moving up."

It had begun to snow again, and this only intensified the cold and made him shiver even more. By this time his cloudy brain had realized that he wasn't at home, but that it had all been a dream, a wonderful dream. A cold, empty, lonely feeling engulfed him as he lay there in the middle of nowhere. The snow started to fall even thicker now, blowing and howling along the flat expanse of land. Soon the landscape became blurred until at last you could only see a few feet ahead.

This was war and winter on the Western Front.

OUR FRIENDSHIP

Second Prize—Literary Contest—By Marion Koch "45"

A grateful prayer steals o'er my lips tonight
R ememb'ring you; your smile; my heart's delight.
L et Him, from whom eternal love doth spring,
I nto your heart His blessing bring,
S trew happiness along your friendly way,
S urround you with His love each day.

I n mem'ry's golden thread, there is
F leet glimpses of our happiness.
F or in life's youthful time, we spent
L ong hours of friendship; our time we lent
A nd gave of all for amity.
N ow, dear friend, we'll face life's trials, with
D reams and memoirs of those hours.

AMERICA—OUR LAND

Third Prize—Literary Contest—By Carolyn Scholz "46"

We are all Americans, but—do we realize it? Some of us, perhaps, do, but a majority of us have no conception of America. Why? Perhaps it is because we do not know what it is like to have one's country invaded by an aggressive nation. Perhaps we were not born in a country which has been overrun by the Axis.

Do you ever lie awake at night and hear an airplane drone over your house and think, "We are safe here. We don't have to be alarmed at the sound of an airplane."? I know I often do. I can sometimes picture a town in a far-off land where the people have to leave their prized possessions in order to get to a shelter. These people probably will never see these prizes of theirs again.

We, as yet, have no such fear. Let us hope we never shall.

MEMORIES

R. Herbert Maas "45"

We had a speech class back in "45";
The room was nice and really alive.

There was one thing which I liked the most,
And that was how Sievert used to boast.

He'd start to boast and think he was smart,
And then Miss Fagan would tear him apart.

Then Archie and Norbert would start to laugh,
And the look she gave them nearly tore them in half.

Then Miss Fagan grabbed them by the hair,
But good "ole" Schultzy, he didn't care;
He'd just sit back and stare and stare.

Then came the day, it was like a war,
Miss Fagan wouldn't tolerate such stuff anymore.

She started to send us to study hall,
And then we would all just sit and howl.

Now my 10 little kiddies are home from school.
You say your teacher made you drool?

What?!!!! Her name is Miss Fagan you say?!
Well now my kiddies, that ain't hay!!

THE MISSION

By Phyllis Neubauer "46"

He trudged silently up the wind swept hill. Far ahead, he could see the lights in the house, his destination. He was all alone on this mission, and tomorrow he knew he would have to make a report to his buddies. The trees cast eerie shadows ahead of him as he walked, and it didn't help his courage any. He finally reached the top of the hill, and turned in at the gate. There he stopped, his heart pounding. What would be waiting for him on the other side of that door?

"Pull yourself together," he told himself in a hoarse whisper. He advanced to the door and stood there for one awful moment, and then boldly knocked.

He stood, listening tensely. All was quiet! He knocked again, louder this time—the door swung open! A smile of relief flooded his face. There stood his date, and all ready, too!

"Hi," she said. "Come on in. I'll get my coat, and then we can go."

He leaned happily against the door, smiling. Gosh, it was bad enough taking the new girl in town out for the first time, especially since she was from New York and seemed so sophisticated. But if her father, the new high school principal, had answered the door, he would have been sunk!

Now they were walking down the long tree-lined street, and the girl was telling him how nice it was to see him. "Boy!" he thought. "Just wait until I tell the guys about this, they'll turn green with envy." He glanced back over his shoulder up the hill to the house, and then jokingly said to himself, "Mission successfully completed!"

MY HERO

By Juliette Grimstead "45"

Yessir, that's Eddie. Didja see him wave at me? He's my best pal.

Why is he my best pal? Well, you see, mister, no one would have looked twice at Eddie in the old days. It wasn't that he warn't smart, 'cause, gosh, how could a guy like me understand arithmetic if a guy like Eddie wasn't right there helpin' me?

He wasn't much for looks, but who is, besides wimmin?

You'd think he'd want a pal his own age, wouldn't yuh? But, I guess me and Eddie were natural from the start to be friends. I was alwus happy with him, except I got kinder sad when I looked at his eyes, he alwus looked around in a sad kind of way. I guess I wasn't much company.

Why didn't they like him?

Well, I don't rightly know, except maybe it was because he was kind a backward with people and not sociable. But he was plenty sociable with me. Yessir, I learnt a lot from Eddie. I learnt to take the gaff from the other guys and like it. I had too—I couldn't fight 'em back, Eddie alwus did the fighting.

Where are those guys now? Lookit over yonder, mister, by that big tree. See that guy? His name's Gilbert. He had the biggest mouth when it came to teasing, but when the war came, his pa put him to work on a farm. Lots of guys like him around here that call themselves Americans—huh!

Did Eddie join up?

Well, I should say so, mister! He never waited for no government greetin'. He tried to get in the Air Corps first, but he couldn't see good enough for that, so they put him in the regular army. He wanted to fight right away, and in a few months, he did.

Eddie's got pluck, he has. I knew all the time Eddie would show 'em if he had the chance. He sure did show 'em, didn't he mister? Gee, to think that it took a war to make people believe that Eddie was somebody, too.

Yessir, he's a hero now. But bein' a hero ain't new to Eddie—he alwus was my hero.

What, mister?

No, them ain't tears you see. It's a hot day, and it's twice as hot just sittin' here.

Say, mister, would you wheel me a little closer to the street? When Eddie comes back this way again, I wanna see my hero up close.

Humor

"That's a laugh" is a familiar phrase around school. Alumni visiting school or writing from foreign places remind us that school days are our happiest. Perhaps Orbie may not whistle while he works, but he surely has fun in much of his school life.

HUMOR ! ? !

OR! What is that strange odor around here?

All the latest dirt in, and around, this institution, gotten by fair means or foul; which just shows to go you that a speech class can be interesting if you happen to sit near B. A. (with apologies to Miss Fagan!)

The streets of Watertown were quiet for a few weeks this winter, much to the relief of the police department. It seems a certain dear and familiar Packard had to be sent to Milwaukee for repairs. It really isn't surprising, however, when you think of all the action the poor car (?) has seen. To mention only a few of these:

It seems this car couldn't be bothered with driving on the road like other cars—no—it had to go driving on the railroad tracks and found it a bit difficult getting off again. (Why Fritzzy, you weren't much help!!)

It also seems that the owner has difficulty keeping her eyes on the road. (It's too bad the YAC has to be on Main Street—Milk trucks are so easy to hit, aren't they??)

What teacher got so excited over a certain basketball player at a recent game, that she was later asked if he were her son. (Why Miss Griffith, we didn't know!!)

What senior girl with her junior date, found out that the Sadie Hawkins dance wasn't what it was cracked up to be? It seems she was driving down one of those out of the way country roads when she accidentally (??) took the wrong road and got stuck in a farmer's yard.

What certain sophomore girl sat on the edge of her seat throughout the Junior Miss production, while her steady went through a love scene with another girl?

What senior girl went to the Fort game in a well known furniture truck with, "a bunch of the boys." (Who said there was a man shortage??)

TRUE STORIES!!

Here are a few true happenings that your roving reporter has managed to dig up out of the halls of good old Watertown High.

One of these little happenings that we really think takes the cake, involves Miss Boelte. It seems, what with all the mad rush about the prom, and in an effort to secure some punch, she called the brewery in an effort to obtain some. Imagine her embarrassment when she was informed, that to their knowledge, that at the present they were dealers only in beer.

The following little ditties will just go to prove that the students in this institution are getting more and more brilliant as the years go on.

It seems that one of our fair students, in home ec, attempted to spell potato with an "e". Mrs. Anderson informed her that—that was incorrect. To prove her point, the young lady informed Mrs. Anderson that in a Milwaukee school, where she was a former student, she was taught to spell it with an "e". Mrs. Anderson then replied that Webster spelled potato without an "e", also. "But—I didn't go to Webster," replied the girl.

Another humorous quip, which follows in somewhat the same vein, took place in Mr. Herreid's geometry class. It seems he asked Bud Vitcenda what a certain line he had drawn on the board was made up of. Bud brightly replied, "Why chalk of course!" (See what I mean??)

It seems our teachers have also taken up that well known excuse that so many of our students indulge in, namely, "But our clock was wrong!!" Imagine Miss Vestling's embarrassment when she walked into her English class—late! It seems things had gone on as usual, as the students were waiting patiently for her arrival. They also informed her that they had made out the absence slip. (Did they send in your name, too, Miss Vestling?)

CALENDAR FOR 1944-45

September

5—CRASH!! BANG!! *****???? A humble "Excuse me", as a young squirt (pardon us) a sophomore rushed to his first class, leaving a poor senior standing in bewilderment. Ah, Yes!! School has begun and the usual rushing and meeting of old friends is on again.

6—Second day of school and already we are beginning to master the new teachers' "John Does". But they aren't very successful with ours—Give 'em time!! Give 'em time!! We gather—as Miss Gruner slides along her classroom floor—that "Erv" and his fellow janitors were busy waxing the floors during the summer months.

7—Hurrah!!! Hurrah!! Third day of school and already they are turning us loose at 2:50. Could it be that they don't want us?? Oh no, no, no . . . . . Just gas rationing registration.

8—Have your mothers called the "little white wagons" yet?? Is it because you were practicing breath control for Speech on the floor?

12—8:42 . . . We were informed by the office that detentions would begin as of today . . . 11:03—Bob Zautner achieves the highest honor of having two detentions slapped on him at the same time.

13—Day in and day out, Dick Schultz is being reprimanded for not opening his mouth wider when speaking. Could it be that he would like private lessons from Miss Fagan after class?

14—Groan!! Sighs!! Ohhhhhh my neck . . my back . . . Don't get excited. It's just the after effects of a strenuous day of tumbling. It seems that Lee Merville had a little trouble counting up to three in Speech class today . . . Are you sure you're a senior, Lee??

15—The football season opens with a thrilling game which brought good results for our Goslings. Score was W. H. S. 6, Ripon 0.

18—Just think, only 98 more days until Christmas. And you know what happens about about that time? Why of course . . . Christmas Vacation!!!

19—Today we had our Home Room Period. The time was spent mainly by discussing the outline of subjects which we intend to cover during the year.

20—There's a good deal of excitement going on around here, because the kids are really getting hep over the Homecoming Parade which is to take place soon.

21—Trucks, decorations, props, costumes, etc. are being brought up to school one after the other for the parade tomorrow. Students are even giving up their precious study halls to work on the "Floats".

22—At last!!! The day for which we planned and waited has arrived. And a nice one it is, too. The parade was a success. (The street cleaners had to sprinkle the streets afterwards). The game was also a victory for us which resulted in a score as follows: W. H. S. 8, Marinette 0!!!

25—Orbit Staff meeting . . . Little "Orbie" is born. To whom????? Well, come now, we won't go into that.

27—Dick Buth hasn't his Adv. Math assignment and listen to his excuse (it beats all those on record):

Dick: I didn't have the facilities with which to do it.

28—Embarrassing moments do occur in everyone's life and so it was this morning in Home Ec. Helen Shackley's purse fell to the floor, opened, and all the contents, including lipstick, rouge, powder, compact, letter, comb, handkerchief, kleenex, mirror, pencil, paper, etc, came tumbling out. These women and their purses, or shall we say suitcases !!!

29—Football game between W. H. S. and Fort Atkinson. Another victory for the Blue and White. Score was 26-6. Nice way to end the first month of school.

October

2—Speech classes are learning about Phoenetics. What is this??? . . . . An English speech course or a foreign language class!!!

3—The students in Miss Griffith's home room sang "Happy Birthday" to Audrey Sherman on her seventeenth birthday. Can't you just hear those sweet mellow voices blending together. Yi, yi, yi, yi, yi.

4—Sort of gloomy out today. Seems as though the weather can't make up its mind . . . should it rain or shouldn't it. It decided it would rain when the girls Gym class was standing outside doing their calisthenics.

5—Herb D. has a hard time keeping his mind on his Adv. Math., and his eyes from wandering to the typing room. Could it be that Phyllis R. has typing this period ????? Could be . . . Could be.

11—Has anyone been wondering why Norman Huber was walking all the way from the upstairs hall to the boys locker section with his back toward the wall???? We'll tell you the secret . . . It seems as though his trousers were ripped in a very inconvenient place and he was desperately trying to get his long plaid shirt out of his locker without being noticed. It didn't work, did it, "Clem"????

12—Today our new system of club meeting is in effect. Now all we have to do is remember which clubs meet during the even weeks and which ones meet during the odd.

13—Deadline for overseas packages!!! Come on, now, all you gals with your servicemen friends, get those packages in the mail. Results of last evening's game with Edgewood are 31-0 in favor of the opposing team.

17—These demonstration speeches in Speech class really seem to bring out the weaker points, we think, as we see Bob Archie, with tears streaming down his otherwise humorous face, as he shows us how to grind an onion.

18—First meeting of the Student Council. Norman Huber was elected president, and Frank Koenig, vice-president. The votes of the students resulted in a tie only after the other members of the Council voted, was it possible to determine who was to be assigned to this office.

19—An assembly program was presented to us today which proved to be very interesting and enjoyable. It concerned "Dancing Electrons" and was given by Mr. Jones.

- 20—Harvest Dance tonight. Music by Campus Band.
- 24—Seniors are reminded to have their Orbit pictures taken.
- 25—Some vagrants stole Dick Buth's limousine and parked it neatly on East Main St. in the middle of the road . . . resulting in some conversation between the cops and Dick!!!
- 26—Dorothy Waldo Phillips, Youth Counselor, spoke to the entire student body today during an assembly program. Later she had private conferences with some of the fellows and girls. As we always say, "We learn something new everyday".
- 27—Orbit pictures taken. Tomorrow night is the grand opening of the "Yac". Everybody ready for a good time???? Game with Portage. We lost . . . score, 13-0.
- 30—Mr. Powell finished taking pictures of various organizations. We sure missed "Alfonzo" with his "All right, ready . . . look right up here, now . . . wait a minute; move a little to the left" . . . . .
- 31—Pep Meeting. New school song introduced . . . it was written by Mr. Keck. Game with Beaver Dam. Defeat for W. H. S. with a score of 39-13. This game closed the football season for the Blue and White.

November

- 1—Well, kids, here it is!!! Our first big vacation is coming up, namely, Teachers' Convention!!!
- 6—Back again. After four whole days we're very anxious to come back (O. K. o. k. so we weren't . . . but we can pretend) Assembly program made the day a bit easier for us. The Bentley Trio presented their act, which included musical numbers on the marimba, and xylophone, and also dances
- 7—Big Election day. Roosevelt won in straw vote. "Frankie"—393 . . . "Tommie"—340. Rather close!!!
- 8—Fire drill during our Gym period. How embarrassing to stand out there in our little (?) gym shorts. Parents go to school tonight to check up on their wonderful sons and daughters. Oh well, kids, we couldn't lead them on all the time.
- 9—Mary Ellen and Nancy Runge, although handicapped by being blind, presented a vocal and piano recital to the assembly which was an inspiration to musicians.
- 10—Election of class officers. Social hour tonight with music by our own Campus Band.
- 14—At Dramatic Club rehearsal, Shirley Witt was giving her portrayal of Joan Davis, especially her walk, when suddenly Shirley made a landslide and we found her sprawled out on the floor. Too much exertion!!!
- 17—We're brushing up on our fairy tales in Speech, now. And, incidentally, we're adding a few of our own.
- 20—Orbit Staff meeting—Miss MacInnis had to sit with Radcliffe Archie to keep him quiet!!! What a man?????
- 21—Pep meeting. Dramatic Club 12 (Senior Thespians) put on a skit built around Hollywood celebrities attending W. H. S. basketball game with Janesville. Real score was 27-13 in favor of Janesville.
- 22—Last day of school for this week. Thanksgiving dance tonight. Music by Campus Band. Don't overeat now, or you'll be sorry!!!
- 27—Jan S. uses new method. Now drops pencil for Erwin S. to pick up instead of usual handkerchief. Tsk, tsk, tsk, these Bobby Socks gals and their techniques!!! I wonder if she discovered that technique over Thanksgiving vacation????

Just plain Murphy — Building up to a let down — Need we say more? — Oh, those trips! — Three of a kind — The "DEAR" hunters — What's up girls? — Speed demon — Height of ambition — Ah, yes — Brawn and brain — Where it goes, he goes — Our heroes — Ladies in waiting — Spring will be a little late 29—Student Council meeting. Has anyone heard about the wonderful write-ups Jim Huber does on the minutes of these meetings???? Brother!!! Are they short and snappy . . . We are beginning to think that Jim isn't the type to use a lot of words in order to say what he wants.

30—Seniors and Sophomores take I. Q. tests today. Mmmmmmmmm . . . we seniors aren't as smart as we thought we were!!!

December

1—W. H. S. played basketball at Whitewater. We were defeated with a score of 32-28.

5—Someone asked in Home Room today when the Christmas play was "coming off"—Bob Archie informed the students that it wasn't coming off . . . "We're putting it on".

6—Dr. Frank Slutz addressed the students at an assembly program today. His topic was one relating to Vocational Guidance. This is the second time that some of us have had the opportunity to hear him and we agree that he is very interesting.

10—Mrs. Anderson informed us that she would assign each of us "drawers" in Home Ec. Esther Dittmann gives out with an uproarious laugh. Why, Esther !!!

11—The fellows around here seem to be acquiring more politeness. In the library today, Ronnie Moser, who had been talking to his friend for about 10 minutes (without permission) asked Mrs. Harms, who had been standing behind him all the while, if she wouldn't like to sit down and join in the conversation.

12—Herb D. waved sadly "good-bye" to his fellow friends as they went to the library during study hall today. It seems the rule now is "No library during study hall if "F" appears on report card". Too bad Herb—better luck next time.

13—Don't you admire the way Bob A. puts on Carol K.'s boots every day in the hall regardless of the taunts of his fellow seniors? Don't you worry, Bob, if no one else appreciates it, Carol does.

15—All the fellows and girls are dressed in their best "bib and tucker" for the Christmas Dance. This is the first hop of the year with music provided by Babe Shonath.

18—Oh, the fun of having final dress rehearsal for the Christmas play. By the way if we didn't mention it, the name of our drama this year is "When the Chimes Rang".

20—The Christmas Play was given for the students in the afternoon and for the public in the evening. The performance was very well done. Isn't it wonderful how some of these young "bobby socks" gals are able to become such beautiful angels in a play????

22—Last day of school and all the Home Rooms enjoyed a very delightful Christmas party. The school furnished the coke. Gifts were exchanged. Old St. Nick sure does give some odd presents doesn't he, Kids!!!.....We'll be seeing you next year.

January

3—Back again . . . but now we are full of resolutions for 1945. Alumni played W. H. S. basketball team tonight. It just goes to show you what fellows W. H. S. can produce—the score was 38-26 in favor of the Alumni assignment for tomorrow. There is one resolution broken for the new year. W. H. S. meets Janesville High tonight. We're wishing the team "Good Luck".

9—The Senior home room groups were addressed by Mr. MacMurray from the United States Employment Service. The boys were very interested and made inquiries about the Merchant Marine.

10—The Student Council held its first meeting of the new year. It is discussing the value of having a "point system" for activities for the benefit of all students who come back next fall.

12—Well, Kids, the jinx is still with our good old W. H. S. team. We were defeated at Edgewood, but we're still hoping and keeping our fingers crossed.

15—Try-outs for the play "Junior Miss" which is to be given Feb. 16. Looks as if there will be a man-power shortage this year. Eddie Herold left for the Navy. Jane can now join the ranks of the "War Widows".

16—Home room period! We learned how to write business letters. Mr. John Keck said "Take a letter, Miss Iffland" (And incidentally, he patted his knee when he said this). Of course it could be just a matter of habit.

17—Assembly program. Mr. Edgar spoke to us on "Seeing the Stars Through a Telescope." O. K. fellow students, now we know two ways of looking at the stars. Shall we take a vote on it—which way is more favorable, and which way is more educational?!

18—The 2:50 Speech class got into a hot argument over "Going Steady". Need we mention the fact that Howie S., a member of the group, was the main speaker in favor of the subject under discussion.

19—Hurrah!!! We've defeated the jinx and have won our first basketball game. The score was, W. H. S.—48, Fort Atkinson—46.

23—Who's the amorous young couple walking down the hall, hand in hand? Why it's none other than Charles Fehling and Helen Shackley. Isn't love grand????

24—Lyle S. desperately tried to prove his own theorem in Adv. Math class that: 1 plus 1 equals 3. He soon gave up for several reasons, namely—Norman H. insisted it amounted to 2.5—Herb D. sat there with a blank look on his face—and last but not least, Miss Griffith walked into the room.

25—Did you hear about the incident in the Soph. Dramatic Club. It seems that a certain girl by the name of "Janie" after seeing no sign of the teacher in the room said "Goodie, goodie, Miss Jessie G. isn't here today". But much to her surprise the teacher in question was sitting at a corner desk. Oh well, Janie, we all have our embarrassing moments.

26—The band presented a very good concert to the students this afternoon. One of the selections, enjoyed by practically everyone was "Bad Boy Boogie Woogie", which was dedicated to Miss Boelte. By the way, the concert, which is also supposed to be given Sunday, is to be dedicated to Erwin Keepman and George Lehmann, two former members of the Band who are now serving in the armed forces.

29—New semester begins, New resolutions are adopted . . . so is a new gym teacher!!!

31—John Keck and Emil Grulke were heroically drawing the shade in Speech, when suddenly, Bang!!! It came down on Emil's head. Too much strength, boys!!! Report cards are to be given out at 3:35. Here we go again! Now we not only have the six weeks' grades to explain but also the semester grades. Yi, yi, yi, yi, yi!!!!

February

1—A new attraction has been added . . . the girls are beginning to play basketball. BROTHER!!!!???

2—Basketball game tonight with Edgewood. We were defeated. Quite some cheering section those fellows had. Everybody was resolved to display good sportsmanship.

5—A very interesting and quite humorous assembly program was presented today by Bo Bo the Magician. Juliette G. added to the enjoyment of the program by assisting "Bo Bo". Men always fool a person, Don't you agree, Juliette?????

6—A wonderful basketball game was held tonight between Lake Mills and W. H. S. We won with a resulting score of 38-36. Once again we've overcome the jinx.

8—What!!! Are these all soldiers up at school????? Jeepers!! Ohhhhh. The Boy Scouts are just wearing their uniforms to school.

9—Sadie Hawkins Dance . . . Lorryne R. and Lila R. appear with regular corn cob pipes. Mr. Powell took some pictures . . . not looking our best, were we?????

12—Lincoln's Birthday. Assembly program . . . ABC's of Aeronautics. Some of us still don't understand it . . . but then, we're not very bright.

13—Basketball game with Fort Atkinson . . . score was 35-23 in favor of Fort. Everybody was on his best behavior.

14—Lee Merville cracks joke: "Spring is the time of the year when the grass and Christmas jewelry turn green." Jeepers!!! Not only are the fellows and girls getting hazy from the Spring Love Bug, but it seems that this thing even effects our jokes.

15—The "Junior Miss" production is put on for the students. Everyone agrees that it's one of the best dramas produced on our Watertown High School stage.

16—Our opinion of "Junior Miss" has been verified by the large audience that came to see the production this evening.

20—Bob Schauer told us in Social Problems class of his experiences with the police. One time he was fined without being taken before the judge. Ronnie Maas piped up, "The cop probably was thirsty."

22—"Father of Our Country" is 231 years old. He's getting to be an old man but one who will never be forgotten.

23—Maurice Lawton and Bob Schauer Barrymore put on the balcony scene from Romeo and Juliet in 8:42 Speech class. Maury makes a very sweet Juliet, standing on the chair!!!

28—Regional Tournaments are well underway. We defeated Ripon 33-31. We hear that this was the only game in the state in which overtime was played. Anyway we won and we're proud of it!!!

March

1—Student Council has completed its point system for activities. "A task well begun, and well completed, is a task well done." Quotation is original

2—Well, it looks like March came like a lamb. Do you think it will get in the same rut as every thing else is, and go out in wolf's clothing???? (That little wisecrack is also by "Yours Truly". After seven months, I'm getting pretty snappy at them, aren't I? Aw all right so I'm not.)

6—We notice that quite a few servicemen are strolling about the school . . . Vernie E., Gordon C., Eddie H., . . . and all sailors too.

7—Class officers and Senior Aces had their pictures taken today. Never let it be said that "Mac" let a fractured arm stop her from doing most anything.

9—Was Miss Brendemuehl blushing today when the fellows in the bass and tenor sections of the chorus asked her in a very pleading tone: "Will you go to the Prom with us, Miss Brendemuehl"?

12—Different phases of Forensics are having elimination contests in order to determine who is to compete in the contest on March 16.

14—Report cards again today. First time we've received them during the second semester. How we wish it was the last!!!!

15—All teachers have a rather worried frown on their faces. Ah Yes! Income Taxes are due today!!!!

16—Orchestra and Band gave concert this afternoon. "The Story of The Three Bears" was well liked—Forensic and "Joe Davies" Contests are to be held this evening.

21—You all know how we rush out of our classes and out of the library when the 11:50 bell rings at noon? Well, today Emil Grulke was dashing out of the library when he took one grand flop on the floor. Embarrassing things will happen!!!

22—Five Watertown students participate in the League Contest at White-water today. Every one of them received an "A" rating and will go to White-water again in April to compete in the District Contest. Good for you, kids! We'll cross our thumbs for you in April.

23—The last day of school before we are free to enjoy our Spring Vacation. What a happy thought . . . and what a nice way to end the day . . . the three Dramatic Clubs put on three one act plays for the public this evening.

April

3—Back after a ten day vacation. Wasn't it wonderful!!! Don't mind those groans . . . they come from all the fellows with the sun-burned faces—namely, those who slaved on the railroad during vacation.

4—Speech students prepare introductions. Marvin Borchardt gives this one for you know who: "Archie, Archie, Archie, the greatest name in monuments. And now I present to you the greatest chiseler of all, Bob Archie".!!

5—Play tryouts for Senior Class Play. The drama this year is "Spring Dance". There seems to be a bit of trouble as to who is eligible and who isn't, to try out. (boys????).

6—Did you all know of the friendly feud which is being waged between Bob Archie and Marvin Borchardt, especially during Speech class? It's a dilly! So far Archie is known as the greatest chiseler and Borchardt is the Nation's No. 1 Cheap Skate.
